Dear Ms. Encarnacion:

We write in relation to the letter sent through PSE ODiSy today, January 24, 2011 requesting our Company to comment on the veracity of the information contained in the newspaper article under the title "Digitel spending to stay at $350-M level this year" which was published in the January 22, 2011 issue of The Philippine Star. The article reported in part that:

"Digital Telecommunications Phils, Inc. (Digitel) is spending $350 million this year, or roughly the same amount as last year, for its capital expenditures, primarily to boost its wireless mobile services network nationwide. Digitel president James Go told The STAR that by the end of this year, their mobile brand Sun Cellular would have the same number of cellsites as the other two telco players (Smart Communications and Globe Telecom) in almost regions of the country...."

We would like to confirm that Digital Telecommunications Phils, Inc. (Digitel) will be spending $350 million this year, or roughly the same amount as last year, for its capital expenditures, primarily to boost its wireless mobile services network nationwide.

We trust that you will find the foregoing in order.

Very truly yours,

WILLIAM S. PAMINTUAN
Corporate Secretary
